Code of Student Conduct
2018-2019

Students enroll at BCHSJS in order to learn and to spend quality time with Jewish peers. For effective learning to take place and for quality social programs and community activities, a respectful and safe environment is necessary. No student has the right to interfere with the education or safety of another student or faculty member. Students and faculty members are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner and to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times. BCHSJS accepts only the highest behavior and moral standards.

For Students:

I agree to:

- Use appropriate language when interacting with faculty, administration, and peers.
- Resolve interpersonal conflicts without using aggressive physical behavior or inappropriate language.
- Respect the privacy of others.
- Show respect for all facilities used by BCHSJS and for the personal property of others.
- Refrain from disrupting the learning process through inappropriate behavior.
- Turn off and put away cell phones, mp3 players, etc., before entering class, and to give any of the above-mentioned electronic devices to a teacher/administrator if taken out during class to be returned only at the end of the session.
- Wear appropriate clothing.
- Bring a kippah to class and wear it for the duration of classes (males are required, females have the option).
- Leave the school or any of its programs only after having received approval from the administration after handing-in written permission from parent or guardian.

I understand that:

- Infractions include but are not limited to acts of vandalism, use or possession of weapons, smoking on school grounds, use or possession of drugs or alcohol, leaving the school grounds without approval of BCHSJS administration, fighting, and sexual or physical harassment.
- If an infraction occurs, a conference will be scheduled with my parent(s)/guardian, the BCHSJS principal or representative, as well as any relevant parties.
- BCHSJS reserves the right to suspend or expel students for any of the above listed infractions and should this occur, tuition will not be refunded.
- My parent(s) and I will be held financially responsible for any property damage which I may cause.

I have read this student code of conduct and agree to abide by each of its tenets.
