Coming to Hebrew High on Sunday Mornings: Myths and Realities

SUNDAY, MARCH 19, 2017

9:30am – 12:45pm

BCHSJS Moriah Campus, 53 South Woodland Street, Englewood 07631

MYTH:

Attending Hebrew High is academically worthless.

REALITY:

BCHSJS sends transcripts to colleges that make a BIG impression! College Credit courses are offered too!

MYTH:

I'm not into being Jewish.

REALITY:

Experience your Judaism in a whole new way! Buy-in to any belief system is not required.

MYTH:

I'm done with Hebrew school. Been there, learned that.

REALITY:

Au contraire! Now's the time for the really juicy, fun, and relevant classes! You may choose from a variety of different classes each semester.

MYTH:

Hebrew High will ruin my social life.

REALITY:

Only if you don't show up! Over 100 teens from 20+ towns come each week to learn and socialize together. We go together to Six Flags, rock climbing, Funplex, and have multiple overnight socials and other fun trips!

MYTH:

I need to sleep-in on Sunday mornings.

REALITY:

Life is short – get-up and hang out with your Jewish friends in comfy clothes and an informal and fun atmosphere. Bagels and snacks are an added bonus each week!
