Important components of the BCHSJS curriculum and experience are the trips, Shabbaton (weekend retreat), overnights, and other school activities. These activities are publicized in advance to the parents and students, and described in various e-mail and written communications. This application will serve as the consent form to participate in such activities; and by signing this application I consent and agree that my child can participate in any and all such BCHSJS activities. These activities, as well as classroom and school activities, are often photographed and videotaped. I also consent that my child may be photographed and/or videotaped, that this/these image(s) may be used by BCHSJS in print and/or online and that I waive all rights with respect to such use and release BCHSJS in connection with any such use or display. It is understood that no remuneration will be received. I may revoke this consent at any time, in advance, in writing. Unless I notify the school in writing, my signature below constitutes consent.

Bergen County High School of Jewish Studies Code of Student Conduct 2020-2021

Students enroll at BCHSJS in order to learn and to spend quality time with Jewish peers. For effective learning to take place and for quality social programs and community activities, a respectful and safe environment is necessary. No student has the right to interfere with the education or safety of another student or faculty member. Students and faculty members are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner and to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times. BCHSJS accepts only the highest behavior and moral standards.

For Students:

I agree to:

- Use appropriate language when interacting with faculty, administration, and peers. •
- Resolve interpersonal conflicts without using aggressive physical behavior or inappropriate • language.
- Respect the privacy of others. •
- Show respect for all facilities used by BCHSJS and for the personal property of others. •
- Refrain from disrupting the learning process through inappropriate behavior.
- Turn off or put cell phone on vibrate and put into the basket upon entering a class to be retrieved when leaving the class. This does not apply when students use the cell phone when guided by the teacher.
- Wear appropriate clothing.
- Leave the school or any of its programs only after having received approval from the administration • after handing-in written permission from parent or guardian.

I understand that:

- Infractions include but are not limited to acts of vandalism, use or possession of weapons, smoking • on school grounds, use or possession of drugs or alcohol, leaving the school grounds without approval of BCHSJS administration, fighting, and sexual or physical harassment.
- If an infraction occurs, a conference will be scheduled with my parent(s)/guardian, the BCHSJS • principal or representative, as well as any relevant parties.
- BCHSIS reserves the right to suspend or expel students for any of the above listed infractions and • should this occur, tuition will not be refunded.
- My parent(s) and I will be held financially responsible for any property damage which I may cause. •

I have read this student code of conduct and agree to abide by each of its tenets.
